Croatia + The Netherlands a winning team!

Bep van Sloten
Foster Care Conference Zagreb
27 November 2010
Where it started

2005
• Forum for Quality Foster Care started

2006
• Visit of Forum representative to The Netherlands: cooperation started
• 22 September: First Foster Care Conference in Zagreb: “Fostering partnerships”

2007
• Foster Care legislation
• Project proposal developed and approved by Ministry of Foreign Affairs The Netherlands

2008
• Start of three years Matra project.
Forum za kvalitetno udomiteljstvo djece

Av. Dubrovnik 10, 10020 Zagreb, Tel./Fax: 01 65 22 011, info@udomiteljstvojacu.hr, www.udomiteljstvojacu.hr
Two key objectives

Adults

• The foster parents in Croatia can make use of their own support and service network, continuing to work on the improvement of the quality of foster care in cooperation with all actors in foster care, including social workers and policy makers.

Youth

• Foster children and youth can meet, have their opinions heard by their carers and by decision makers. Youth participation is realised in Croatia and the rights of children are respected during and after leaving care.
Achievements

• Forum is registered Civil Society Organisation
• Board with members from different regions of Croatia
• Cooperation between foster parents, youth and staff from CSW
• Cooperation with Ministries, UNICEF, SOS, residential facilities and other NGO’s
• Quality4Children standards implemented
• Conferences, trainings, foster families days
• Magazine, website, E-newsletters, publications
• And….
Activities

Adults
- Working visit to The Netherlands
- 9 Magazines, website
- Conferences
- Foster families days
- 9 training days foster parents
- 2 training days social workers
- Leaflet
- Round tables
- Board representing many associations + youth
- Quality4Children
- Participation IFCO conference
- Handbooks
- Media campaign

Youth
- Working visit to The Netherlands
- 9 Magazines, website
- Conferences
- Foster families days
- 3 training weekends
- Leaving care handbook
- Leaving care round tables
- Presentations in round tables
- Youth meetings
- Youth Board
- Participation “I matter”, Power4Youth, IFCO conf.
- Children rights leaflet
- Media campaign
FOSTER FAMILIES DAYS
In loving memory
The people

- Foster Parents Associations: Oaza, Nadomak Sunca, Zipka, Nada-Ivanec, Put ka sreći, Udrug udomitelja istarske županije
- Office staff
- Board members and steering committee members
- Youth Board
- Croatian experts for trainings, media campaign, conferences, strategic meetings, etc
- Dutch experts
The Youth Board
Project transition

• Year one: transition and building
  Transition of knowledge from The Netherlands to Croatia
  Building of Forum infrastructure

• Year two: implementation and growth
  Training by Dutch and Croatian trainers
  Implementation and publications
  Regional implementation via round tables

• Year three: harvesting and planning for the future
  Publications; presentations; media campaign
  Strategy for 2011-2013
What we learned

- Looking at the Dutch situation with different eyes.
- Youth participation
- What enthusiastic foster parents can achieve
- Cooperation in working on quality care

- Trainers always get the most out of a training; projects do the same with people involved…..
The future: strategic plans

- a network of support in cooperation with all relevant stakeholders for foster parents and foster parents organisations and stakeholders in the field of care for children.
- mechanism of support and self-organisation of children and youth in foster families
- advocate the improvement of quality of foster care in the process of creating and implementing public policy
- organisational sustainability of Forum
And you?

• What does Forum mean for you?

• What can you contribute?

• How can you contribute to the ongoing mission of Forum: improve the quality of care through networking?

• We promise ongoing exchange between our countries of good practices and information
Forum is an important part of the future of your foster care structure. Never change a winning team! Help to make it stronger.